

Compulsory Purchase and Compensation Advisors

Put our knowledge and experience to work for you!

Tuohy O'Toole is one of the most experienced firms of Chartered Valuation Surveyors in the west of Ireland, having practised in the Compulsory Purchase area for almost 50 years.

We have represented Mayo County Council in many of their major road schemes over the past decades, two further road schemes for Leitrim County Council and a major water scheme for Galway County Council.

Meanwhile we have represented land owners in Mayo and in virtually all adjoining counties and many others throughout Ireland in the same period. We have an intimate knowledge of the legislation surrounding CPO which would be unrivalled in the region.

We offer professional personal services to landowners throughout the CPO process. Our negotiation skills are proven and together with our knowledge of this area and property values, our decades of experience in the CPO and Arbitration process, will ensure a good result for all clients.

Tuohy O'Toole is the largest firm of Chartered Surveyors and Valuers in County Mayo and one of the largest in the west of Ireland. The cornerstone of the business is the provision of professional property services and in particular valuation.

Our two directors have between them more than 50 years' experience and are widely considered to be two of the leading valuers in practise regionally. You can be assured of a highly professional and discreet service.
